To Our Valued Customers

The 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympic and Paralympics Games are set to occur in February and March this year. The impact of this world class sporting event will have will have a significant impact on truck transportation and local delivery costs within the City of Vancouver and the Town of Whistler. This is due to increased security measures, various government restrictions, limitations on pickup and delivery times, and increased traffic congestion.

The impact of the above has progressively unfolded since late 2009 and will be in full force as of February 2010. Please refer to www.vanoc.com for further information and details.

As a result of the impact and restrictions, Consolidated Fastfrate will be assessing the following surcharges to offset increased operational costs associated to provide delivery service during the impacted Olympic period. These surcharges will be assessed on all orders shipped from January 25, 2010 to February 20, 2010 destined for the following postal codes.

V5Y, V5Z, V6B, V6C, V6E, V6G, V6Z, V7X, V7Y
